LOCAL GINS

6 o'clock Gin - 4.50

Produced by Bramley & Gage, based in Thornbury who describe this gin as being "as smooth as velvet slippers on a marble floor". A classic dry gin paired simply with lemon.

Psychopomp Woden Gin - 4.75

Made on site at their micro distillery on St Michaels Hill, this gin is one of their most popular. Lovely hints of citrus. Paired with their perfect serve suggestion of pink grapefruit.

Jinzu Gin - 5.00

Though now distilled in Scotland, Jinzu's incarnation began in Somerset, created as part of an international spirit design competition. Made in part with sake, traditional gin botanicals are enhanced with flavours of cherry blossom and yuzu. We serve it with green apple, based on the recommendation of creator Dee Davies. A definite must try.

Mix with a Fever Tree Original or Naturally Light tonic for an extra 1.50

- SPARKLING -

Cava Medusa, Pagos de Tharys, Spain NV (n) 11.5% 5.50 125ml Glass 26.00 Bottle

Light, dry and crisp in style with a moreish mousse, this Cava will delight even the most fervent fizz fans.

Champagne Brut 'Decelle' NV (o) 44.00 Bottle

Sustainably farmed, this Champagne has lovely honeyed toast flavour. A gentle, rich fizz makes this a must for a celebration and will perfectly compliment your evening with us.

- ROSÉ -

Pinot Noir Rose, Dunleavy Vineyards, Somerset, England 2017 11.5% 26.00 Bottle

This wine is supplied to us directly by owner and curator of Dunleavy Vineyards, Ingrid Bates. Situated in the heart of the beautiful Chew Valley in Somerset, a stones throw away from Bristol, Ingrid has a background in biology and was finally able to embark on her viticultural career by planting her own vineyard in 2008.

Comalats Gavernera, Syrah Rose, Catalonia 2016 (o) 13% 31.00 Bottle

A wonderfully fresh, organically produced rosé. Lovely floral wine with deep, fruity notes at the finish. Produced at an artisanal family winery, 720m above sea level in Segarra.

- SAKE -

The natural sweetness of sake makes it the perfect alternative to a dessert wine.

- WHITE -

Pinoso Blanco, La Bodega De Pinoso, Spain 2017 (o) 12.5% 5.75 175ml 24 Bottle

Our organic house white made by a farming Co-op in Alicante. Fresh, citrusy, clean and very drinkable.

Sauvignon, Domaine Guy Allion, France 2016 (s) 12% 6.25 175 ml 26 Bottle

Produced by Guy Allion just outside Sancerre in the Loire Valley... but without the price tag! Lovely texture and a slightly more complex profile than the Pinoso Blanco with grassy, gooseberry notes.

Vin Naturo Trebianno, Tuscany 2017 (b) 12.5% 6.75 175ml glass

Made with wild yeast in wild surroundings. An aromatic white and a case of 'love at first sight' at our most recent tasting. Vin Naturo are championing ethical methods and environmentally friendly packaging. Delivering high quality wines at exceptional value.

La Mesma Gavi 'INDI', Italy, 2017 (o) 12.5% 28.00 Bottle

Made from INDigenous yeasts in a wooded vineyard influenced by coastal breezes this wine has been a staff favourite since our first taste. Created by three sisters who really want to show off the flavours enhanced by the local area - we salute you.

Tuets Parellada, 2015 (o,n) 10.5% 33.00 Bottle

Made from one of the three classic Cava grapes, this is highly unusual as a varietal. Hand harvested with a spontaneous fermentation, the result being a fresh, zippy and very light wine with jasmine and grapefruit notes.

Avi Ton, Xarel-lo 2013 (s) 12.5% 36.00 Bottle

After fermentation this wine spends 3 months in French and American oak barrels which gives it a lovely, smooth & slightly oaked flavour.

Tardatio Malvasia de Sitges, Penedès, 2016 13% 34.00 Bottle

A classic grape local to the Penedès. After cool fermentation half the wine spends 4 months in oak barrels and the other matured in stainless steel before blending. Dry, creamy and aromatic with ripe peach vibes.

Vinyes Singulares Malvasia de Sitges-Parellada, 2017 (n) 12% 37.00 Bottle

A wine made by the vine rather than the cellar; spontaneous fermentation with no sulphites added and no filtering. This 'hand-knitted' wine is a work of art with juicy grape and freshly picked apple flavour. A brilliant example of how exciting natural wines are.

- RED -

Pinoso Tinto, La Bodega De Pinoso, Spain 2017(o) 13.5% 5.75 175ml 24 Bottle

Our house red wine made by the same farming Co-op in Alicante as our house white. Super smooth on the palette, rich but not cloying. An amazing wine.

Les Galets Rouge, Vignerons, France 2016 (o) 12% 6.25 175ml 26 Bottle

Fresher, red fruit vibes. Flavours of ripe strawberries and silky raspberries from a variety of grapes including Syrah and Grenache.

Vin Naturo Sangiovese, Francesco De Felippis, Tuscany 2017 (b) 13% 6.75 175ml

Vines are farmed alongside wheat, fruit, olives and woodland to stay true to Francesco's biodynamic philosophy. Wines are macerated, aged and fermented in concrete to create a fresh, well structured wine.

El Primer Tempranillo, Barcelona 2017 (o,b) 13.5% 29.00 Bottle

Ruby light colour, seriously drinkable. On the nose, sweet and acid red fruits, and floral aromas. Produced biodynamically and macerated for a short 3 day window giving it its floaty texture.

Metic Cabernet Sauvignon, Chile 2018 (n) 13.5% 37.00 Bottle

A very drinkable red with ripe red fruit, a touch of smoke and some subtle tannins on the finish which keep everything in balance. Made by two Chilean guys, who consult for many wineries in Chile and have their own business sourcing grapes from sustainable and in many cases organic vineyards.

Camille Malbec, Cahors, France 2018 (n) 13% 36.00 Bottle

Vibrant juicy fruit, plum and red cherry. Nice acidity with a fresh finish. Made by some of the regions top producers at a third generation family owned vineyard, Chateau du Cedre, which was established in the late 50's after a drastic frost wiped out most of the ancient vines.

Els Quindals, Mas Estela, Spain 2013 (b) 15% 34.00 Bottle

Produced in Catalonia, this wine was the house at El Bulli during its tenure as the No.1 restaurant in the world. And with good reason. Strong and bold with classic characteristics of black cherry and spiced blackberry, this is a must try for red wine enthusiasts.
